AMUSEMENTS.

—The Ted E. Faust Minstrels last year, its first season out, scored the greatest record ever made by a first season minstrel show. They traveled over 29,000 miles, and could all the people played to be congregated in a single amphitheater, there'd be an audience of over 200,000 souls. Not an adverse criticism was given. The Faust Minstrels will be at the Grand to-night.

—Manager Wiggins has secured a contract by which he has secured this season's theatrical novelty success, "A Country Kid," for to-morrow night. This is one of the latest metropolitan successes, a play that combines comedy, pathos and a strong heart's story, dealing with life as seen in small Indiana towns. The general character, "A Country Kid," is an awkward, gawky boy.

We direct attention to the public sale advertisement of H. T. Estes in another column. He will offer on Monday, at 11 o'clock, in front of the court house, a desirable residence and eight acres of land located on Cypress street.

Have Taken Charge.

Cahal Bros. having purchased the barber shop of A. T. Crawford, opened out for business Monday morning. These two brothers are expert barbers and have expert assistants and will conduct a first-class shop in every particular. Hot and cold baths at all times. They solicit the patronage of their friends and the public.

For cement and sand, see us. We are also contractors for all kinds of cement work and we would be pleased to figure with you.

MARRIAGES.

—The marriage of Miss Eva D. Taylor, and Mr. Benjamin R. Caldwell, was solemnized at the home of the bride in Millersburg, Feb. 23, at 3 o'clock, p. m. Rev. R. M. Caldwell, was the officiating minister, and only the members of the immediate family were invited to witness the ceremony.

The bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Taylor and is one of the most popular young ladies of Millersburg.

Mr. Caldwell is a brother of Mr. John Caldwell, of Millersburg, and is very much respected by all who know him.

Immediately after the ceremony, they left for their home near Carlisle, where a reception was awaiting them. They were accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Rankin, the bride's cousin and Rev. Caldwell.

HERE's a good thing, and a splendid investment. Genuine French plate mantel mirrors, 25 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide, full four feet long, just about one-half their real value, this week only, \$2.95. THE FAIR.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Susan Coates Harcourt Thomas, aged 27 years, wife of Mr. Robert Lee Thomas, son of Capt. J. M. Thomas, of the Ford Lumber Company, died at her home in Louisville, Saturday, at one o'clock, of heart failure. She is survived by her husband, mother, three sisters and two brothers. Mrs. Thomas was a daughter of the late Judge Ashton P. Harcourt, and was a young woman of rare and brilliant intellectual qualities. The funeral occurred yesterday from the residence at 2:30 o'clock, services by Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, of whose church she was an active and consistent member.

—J. Thomas Talbott, aged about 65, died at Ashville, N. C., on Friday, of consumption of the bowels. Deceased lived at Colville, this county, and the remains passed through Paris, yesterday en route to Millersburg, where the funeral will take to-day. Mr. Talbott is survived by his wife and adopted daughter.

A Good Bunch.

Turkey Bros. on yesterday shipped their stable of 22 thoroughbreds to Nashville. Among them were the old favorites, Bluegrass Girl, Woodsperry, Mrs. Wiggins, Jehane and several other good ones.
